STORY

Adam's world has gone quiet and gray. School days repeat, emotions blur, and nothing seems to matter very much until a rainy encounter interrupts the routine.

Adam meets the mysterious and pretty Marissa. A fateful encounter, that will give Adam what he's been looking for... will you be able to guide him towards a path full of color? Or will he end up back to that world devoid of color?

CHARACTERS

LOVE & COLOR

The story's emotional progress is represented by color. Early chapters feel restrained and desaturated; later chapters bloom as Adam becomes more receptive to love.

Your choices dictate the plot, you will be presented with options, deciding who to trust, or what to believe in will dictate Adam's future. Will you guide him on this self discovery journey on a path for self growth or maybe you'll find yourself isolated and lonely at the end?

ENDINGS

There are five main endings: one true ending, one normal ending, and three darker alternative endings. Each reflects a different way of accepting, misunderstanding, or rejecting connection.
